8:30 AM	9:45 AM	General Session	Keynote: Shelley Row Read the Room: Create Connections and Relationships that Last To be effective you need staff – motivated, dependable staff who will stick around. That means a big part of your job is to attract and retain the people on the front lines. For busy managers, making time to grow and create relationships can seem like another activity on the already long to-do list. However, those relationships are key to retaining your staff. As one leader said, “I learned that relationship development wasn’t wasted time, it was invested time.” In this workshop, use a short self- assessment tool to gain insight into your communication style. Using a practical framework, discover techniques to “read the room” and learn easy-to-apply approaches to adapt to others so that they feel seen, heard and valued. Those are the staff who will stick around. Learning Objectives: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Discover your individual communication style through a quick, easy-to-use self-assessment.</li> <li>• Learn to read the room and recognize communication styles in others.</li> <li>• Apply easy adaptation techniques that will enhance communication, relationships and performance.</li> </ul>	Grand Ballroom C Shelley Row
